

Parent Code of Conduct

The purpose of this code of conduct is to make sure all Elevation Athletics members parents know and understand what is expected of them, to help us all establish a consistent expectation for the parent's behavior and how we expect our program to operate.

By signing this code of conduct, I agree that I will abide by the following statements during my time as a member of Elevation Athletics:

- I will set the right example for my children and the other children on EA by showing sportsmanship, respect and common courtesy at all times for EA members, EA coaches, competitors, officials, parents of other teams and all facilities.
- I will make sure my child knows I love them regardless of how fast they swim or how well I think they should be doing.
- I will always make sure my athlete has a ride to and from practices and competitions.
- I will appropriately volunteer my time to help the EA program and appropriately support the EA athletes and coaches at practices and competitions.
- I will NOT coach my child from the stands or pool deck at any meet or practice.
- I will NOT criticize my child or any other child through name-calling, abusive language, gestures, mental games or physical abuse at any time.
- I will NOT criticize and EA coach through name-calling, abusive language, gestures, mental games or physical abuse at any time.
- I will respect the integrity of the officials.
- If I have concerns, I will direct them to the EA coach Eric Stefanski.
- I will NOT cause drama or additional problems for my child, other families or the EA program as a whole.

I understand the above expectations and realize my failure to adhere to these items may result in suspension from the EA team for my child or other disciplinary or legal actions.
